Educational Activity Application

What is an "Educational Activity?"

An "Educational Activity" is an individual application. This application is used if you wish to offer a program for contact hours. As the RN planner and/or person administratively responsible for the program, you have the opportunity to assure the continued success of these standards by advocating and promoting quality continuing education programs.

NJSNA's Continuing Education Manual incorporates criteria mandated by the American Nurses Credentialing Center's Commission on Accreditation. Our step-by-step application process is provided in the "NJSNA Continuing Education Approver Manual" under the "Criteria for Educational Activities" and makes the application process much easier.

Terms of Approval:

Individual Educational Activity Application - Two (2) years
Approved Providers – Three (3) years

Types of Action:

Approval - A decision made by the accrediting approver that the criteria for approval of the activity has been met
Deferral - A decision made to delay action on an application.

Denial - A decision made by an accredited approver not to approve an application. NJSNA is committed to working with individuals to ensure approval. Applications are only denied if the program is not "Continuing Nursing Education"

NJSNA CONTINUING NURSING EDUCATION (CNE) APPLICATION PROCESS

Withdrawal - Termination of an application, without prejudice to any future applications, prior to the date on which an official decision is made.

Appeal Process - An appeal process is available to an application to contest the decision made by the Approver Unit to deny approval. An appeal must be submitted in writing to the NJSNA Approver Unit Nurse Peer Review Leader within 30 days after the applicant received written notification of the denial decision.

NOTE:

1. All applications must be submitted a minimum of ninety (90) days prior to their presentation date to allow sufficient turnaround time for review.
2. Four (4) copies of your completed application will need to be sent on flash drives using the PDF Bookmarking guide.
3. All pages of the application must be numbered in consecutive order. Application not numbered will not be reviewed.
4. All applications including any and all forms must be typed.
5. All applications go through a review process There is NO "Retroactive Credit" Approval of educational activity that has already taken place -RETROACTIVE APPROVAL" IS NOT AUTHORIZED BY NJSNA OR THE AMERICAN NURSES CREDENTIALING CENTER'S COMMISSION ON ACCREDITATON SYSTEM.
