RE: Childcare for Essential Workers

The N.J. Department of Human Services encourages essential workers in need of childcare (serving children under age 13) to phone their county Child Care Resource and Referral Agency (CCR&R). CCR&R staff are available by phone Monday–Friday (times vary by county) to help identify a certified and age appropriate childcare center. The CCRR agency can also link essential worker families to other support services, such as information on and access to childcare subsidy programs.

Please feel free to share their website: <https://www.childcarenj.gov/Parents/CCRR>.

Contact information on all 21 county childcare resource and referral agencies is attached. As soon as a list of certified providers and hours of operation is made available, NJHA will send an update.

Do not hesitate to contact me at 609-744-8497 (cell) or at vbrogan@njha.com with any questions.
