Your Connection to NJ's Influential Health Care Providers

Nurses Weekly reaches nurses across the state of New Jersey, as well as students interested in a nursing career. These important and influential health care providers are loyal readers of our award-winning e-publication, which curates exciting original content as well as reporting on important nursing news from around the state and the nation and delivers it straight to their inboxes each week.

THE VALUE OF ADVERTISING IN NURSES WEEKLY

Every week NJSNA distributes a carefully curated email blast with information on what is happening and up and coming in the nursing community.

Nurses are very involved and love to read about their peers and keep up with new developments in the health care industry.

On average, 36.2% of subscribers will open the email. Over 5.6% of those opening the publication have clicked through the content.

Since 2016, when the NJSNA newsletter began, more than 1,400,000 emails have been distributed to an ever growing audience of 69,000 nurses.

WHAT OUR READERS ARE SAYING

“The NJSNA e-newsletter really brings together pertinent information that all nurses need to know professionally. I love the colorful format and easy to read summary with option to click on what you want to know more of. I love that it provides national news, state news, and truly focuses on caring for self and what is important to know about hot topics affecting our profession. It is an easy and informative read!”

- Kate Gillespie, MBA RN Assistant Vice President Orthopedic Service Line, NJSNA Member

ADVERTORIAL

An advertorial is an advertisement for a business, product or service written in the form of an article. To keep copy consistent, accurate, and objective, NJSNA has established the following guidelines for advertorials.

The name(s) and contact information of the advertorial's author(s) must be provided with the advertising insertion order. Topics and outlines for the advertorial should be submitted with the advertising insertion order. NJSNA editorial staff reserves the right to contact authors to discuss the content being developed.

The due date for the advertorial copy is two weeks prior to the ad artwork deadline. This allows time for editing and approval between CMA's editorial staff and the advertiser. Advertorial copy must be submitted in a format that can be edited by CMA's editorial staff. A Word document is preferred.

NJSNA reserves the right to edit any material to maintain proper word count (250 words), grammar, tense, and consistency. Image dimensions for the advertorial are 300 x 225 px.

No advertorial that is misleading, deceitful, discriminatory, fraudulent, or slanders another company or person will be allowed.

Advertorials will be marked clearly as such.

Advertorial with Copy Provided	$1,000.00
Advertorial with Copy Written by CMA	$1,800.00

ADDED VALUE

You can add value to your Nurses Weekly ad-buy with free ad space on the new blog page at NJSNA.org with the purchase of an email blast advertisement.

Your ad will be visible to all NJSNA.org blog page visitors and its placement is included with your Nurses Weekly ad space purchase at no extra cost. The length in which your ads will run will be based off the number of purchased issues. Purchase 4 issues and receive free ad space for one month, purchase 8 issues and receive free ad space for two months and so on.

Don't miss this opportunity to put your products and/or services in front of even more registered and advanced practice nurses who rely on NJSNA.org for all the news that matters to them the most.
